It is said that if the weather is fair and mild in January and at the beginning of February, There is more winter ahead that behind.

February Fun Fact

February is one of the most misspelled and mispronounced words in the English language

WILL YOU BE MY VALENTINE

While we exchange cards and flowers each Valentine's Day, in Wales a man carries a wooden "Love Spoon" for his beloved, decorating it with symbols such as a key (to his heart). Meanwhile in Iraq, lovers exchange red apples decorated with cloves representing the story of Adam and Eve

Weather Folklore

"If the cat lies in the sun in February, she will creep behind the stove in March"

February is Return Shopping carts to the supermarket Month. I am sure you have seen in your travels shopping carts abandoned alongside road, in ditches, or under bridges. It is estimated that two million shopping carts are taken from supermarkets each year and with one cart valued at $1.00, that's 200 million rolling away.

Mary's Corner

"Surely as cometh the winter, I know there are spring violet under the snow."

R.H. Newell

19th Century Humorist

Birthdays for February is amethyst. Amethysts is loved for its soft pink and purple tones. According to legend, amethyst received its enchanting purple hue from Dionysus, the Greek god of wine. Amethysts a woman he was pursuing, refused his affection and prayed to the gods to remain chaste. The goddess Artemis this transformed her into a white stone Dionysus, who was humbled and inspired by Amethysts purity, powered wine over the stone as an offering. As a result the color of the crystals changed to purple.

The Flower of the month is Violets. The violet is a very popular little plant. Violet is also the state flower of Illinois, Wisconsin, New Jersey and Rhode Island. Purple violets said, "I'll always be there." White and cream-colored bloom said, "Let's take a chance on love and happiness." Even the heart-shaped leaves of the wild violet symbolize love.

Once Upon A Time

Once upon a time, it was decreed that February 26 would forevermore be Fairy Tale Day. They have traced the first fairy tales back to an era before the written word. An old folktale entitled "The Smith and the Devil," which is about a blacksmith selling his soul to the devil in order to gain magical abilities, dates to the bronze age-6,000 year ago. It's no surprise that fairy tale are so old. The purpose of these stories, after all is to teach children clear distinctions between good and evil and right and wrong.

The Grimm's Brothers are famous for their collection of fairy tales. Can you think what some of their were? "Little Red Riding Hood, Cinderella, Hansel and Gretel, and Snow White." and then they printed their versions into folklores. Fairy Tale Day choose a story collected by Wilhelm Grimm, for this brother's birthday falls on February 24. Here are new tale for you: "The King of the Golden Mountain, Hans My Hedgehog, and Cat and Mouse in Partnership."

The Year of the Pig. February 5 where in the year of the pig s very suspicious year in Chinese Culture. Why does the pig represent wealth and good fortune? With pigs held in such high esteem, it may be surprising to learn that the pig is the very last animal of the Chinese Zodiac.

The legend states that when the Jade Emperor declared that he selecting animals for the zodiac, all the animals rushed to his palace to be included. But the pig journeyed slowly and when he arrived, the gates were shut. However the other animals pleaded with the Jade Emperor to let him inside. The pig was allowed to enter was also made the last sign of zodiac. Perhaps the pig's good fortune stems from this tale.

Enclosing here's a joke to brighten your day: At our weekly Bible study, the leader asked an elderly gentlemen, Walt to open the meeting with prayer. Walt did so in a soft voice.

Another man straining to hear, shouted, "I can't hear you!"
Walt replied, "I wasn't talking to you!" Until Next Month Mary Pres.
